DETAILED ACTION

Remark

1. Claims 1-15 have been cancelled, and claims 16-35 are newly added for reconsideration.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 22 is objected to because of the following informalities: a wireless telephone device is able to receive and transmit "signal" NOT "input" from ...an extension phone.

Appropriate correction is required. An input is for receiving the signal from one communication device to another, BUT an input cannot be stated as being receiving or being transmitting by the communication device. Claim languages must be precise and structurally bonded together in step-by-step.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 16-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The term "a means for" and/or "a means of" in claims 16, and 26 are relative terms which renders the claim indefinite. The term "a means for" or "a means of" is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention. These terms are vague and indefinite to define a method or any technique.

Art Unit: 2618

5. Claims 16-35 are rejected as failing to define the invention in the manner required by 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph.

The claim(s) are narrative in form and replete with indefinite and functional or operational language. The structure which goes to make up the device must be clearly and positively specified. The structure must be organized and correlated in such a manner as to present a complete operative device. The claim(s) must be in one sentence form only. Note the format of the claims in the patent(s) cited.

Again, claim languages must be precise and structurally bonded together in a step-by-step and defined (supported by the specifications) in such a manner that the applicant needs to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
